An Impressive Ceremony at the Grave of a Weil-Known Man,

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock there was a solemn and impressive anniversary ccremony over the grave of Napoleon B. Fithlan In Arlington Cemetery. The B. Fithian in Arington Cometery. The ceremonies were participated in by both the Grand Army of the Republic and the Independent Order of Elks, and among those present were Colonel M. Ea.met Urell, commander of the Department of the Potomac: Senior Vice Commander S. E. Faunce, Assistant Adjutant General John M. Keogh, Assistant Quartermaster General J. H. Jochum, W. D. Mack, John A. Cunnerford, superintendent of the cometery. ford, superintendent of the cemetery, the two last named aides on Department Commander Urell's staff, together with Thadeus K. Satier and August Douglas of the Order of Elas. There were also a large number of the personal friends of the deceased at the cemetery. Remarks of a very touching and appro-priate nature were made by Commander Urell and Vice Commanders Paunce and Saller, the whole concluding with a prayer by August Douglas, the chaplain of the Eiks. The grave was then strewn with flowers.

GENERAL CROCKER'S SUCCESSOR.

The Appointment Cannot Be Made Until the Justices Return.

The vacancy occasioned by the death of Warden Crocker cannot be filled for some time, as the Chief Justice and a majority of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the District, which has the power of appointment, are absent from the city, only two, Justices Cox and Bradley, being now here. It will be filled as soon as possible, however, because of the danger of legal complications which related to the complex to th of legal complications which might possibly arise, as the law does not provide that the effice of Warden shall vest in the Deputy Warden in the case of the death or disability of the Warden.

There are but few candidates for the resides, and the present outlook favors the appointment of Deputy Warden Russ to the vacancy. He has been connected with the institution for many years, and is thoroughly familiar with the duties of the office. Mr. Robert Ball, now the crier of the Court in General Term, is also a candidate. eral Term, is also a candidate.
